

Working with Beka Smith was a real joy. She is a brilliant artist, and she made the process of creating a portrait - about which I had been trepidatious - as easy and enjoyable as possible for me as the subject. She has a warmth and a humour that helps create the right atmosphere for the project, and she adds to that a collaborative style which fosters inclusion in the project throughout. I could not recommend her more highly.