

It was rather alarming to contemplate having a portrait painted, but Beka is so lovely and put me at my ease. She also produced a superb picture which not only (according to friends and colleagues) looks like me, but which I like, and which hopefully shows my character too. I have no hesitation in recommending her.